

The aim of the ALMA Hospital Trust is to: "Relieve thousands of people in the Hafizabad District of Pakistan from their pain, suffering, helplessness and misery as a result of ill health, by building and equipping a 75 bed hospital in New Babyam, Hafizabad. This will then be run by local government resources."

The work of the Trust is outlined in the Trust's constitution and is governed by a board of trustees, who meet on a monthly basis in Watford, Hertfordshire. The names of the Trustees can be obtained from the rules of the Trust.

Affiliation to the Trust is one of the main ways in which individuals or organisations can show their ongoing support and keep in touch with the work of the Trust.

The Trust undertakes to guarantee the following to affiliates:

- A copy of the AHT News, by post
- A copy of the annual accounts
- Minutes from the Trustees meetings on request
- The chance to influence the work through consultation on major issues
